

Emerging Spirits Happy-nings

Reverend Jymmisms

"It's spring fever. That is what the name of it is. And when you've got it, you want—oh, you don't quite know what it is you do want, but it just fairly makes your heart ache, you want it so!" Mark Twain.

Spring is full of celebrations! April is a month of holy holidays and in celebrating them we come away current, open, revived, refreshed and ready to celebrate life itself.

Celebrating Palm Sunday, the journey into Jerusalem for Jesus, for us a journey of healing, of ourselves and our planet. On a spiritual journey it usually takes time and it will involve letting go of fear. It is ushering in our good and resurrecting our dedication to God at a deeper level. On this journey we may experience pain, but we grow because of our pain, not in spite of it.

Celebrating Good Friday, the decision that Jesus made about his life, "I will give something of my selfhood that represents more of who I am, the best of who I am, a representative of all that is good within me. And may they, release those ideas of who I am not, crucify their less than-ness, and be renewed to the truth, That I am an indwelling presence who loves them unconditional and will never leave them in this world or the next, or the next."

Use this time to seek within and ask, "What in me needs to be crucified, because it has brought out the smallness of me, the unworthy of me, the idea of less than." "What in me needs to be crucified that is fear based?" "What in me is restrictive, confined, hard, hateful, and mean that needs to be released and crucified?"

The Celebration of Easter! We turn to the light, we turn to God! It is a new dawn and awakening, a rising up in consciousness to be renewed and resurrected into a world that is wrought in love. Jesus lay in the tomb for three days, and in the darkness on the third day he declared, I am not this body, I am so much more, "I am, that I AM. He turned to the dawning light outside and it embraced him and he lives on.

We are not our bodies, we are so much more. We are not of this world, but spiritual light beings first. And we are here to be that light and love to all. We are awakening to our Divinity. EH wrote that Jesus revealed himself to his followers after his resurrection, to show them that death is but a passing to a higher sphere of life and action... that which I really am will continue to live beyond the grave.

Celebrating Earth Day, April 22, "Love alone can unite living beings, so as to complete and fulfill them...for it alone joins them by what is deepest in themselves. All we need is to imagine our ability to love developing until it embraces the totality of men and of the earth." Telhar De Chardin. We are the Song that the Uni-verse sings. We are One with the Uni-verse. We are members of a vast cosmic orchestra in which each living instrument is essential to the complementary and harmonious playing of the whole, J. Allen Boone from Kinship with all life.

And I Celebrate You! That's right you, you who are reading this article. Thank you for your love and support throughout the years. I am blessed by your love, and ESC is blessed.

Practitioners' Corner

Blooming

My wife refers to my anecdotes as 'fortune cookie wisdom' because they are usually short and are fairly obvious to most folk. I like them because they are simple and easy for me to remember.

'Bloom where you're planted' is another of my 'obvious' anecdotes, I mean, really, where else would one bloom except where one is planted?

The high deserts of California, due to recent rains, are having what's been called a 'super bloom'. I can only guess this must please

God a great deal to see His labors come to such fruition and so beautifully. Yes, this was high on my bucket list to see for good reasons. To see such beauty and bounty, up close and personal, I think that it should be on everyone's list. Originally read, on of all places, a bumper sticker.

I felt that it was great advice. Yes we should all bloom where we're planted and if you can't, move to where you can or least where your Faith has more Hope.

The highest and best is a common and lofty goal in RS, but attainable none the less. Identifying what that is, is the hardest part. Target acquisition it's called or hitting what one aims at more simply put. We all can bloom and everyone can be better, all we have to do is to try harder, to be a little braver. Pull yourself up to your full height, stick your courageous head through the warm, moist soil of spring and let your blooms happen. Good things will come to you as sure as rain. An accomplishment is a bloom too. Now go and spread your petals to the sun, realize YOUR dreams and let a million flowers bloom. I'm going into the high desert to start counting. Keep the Faith!

Book Club in May!

Coming on a Saturday in May. Since antiquity, one story has stood at the center of every conversation about men and women. One couple has been the battleground for human relationships and sexual identity. That couple is Adam and Eve. Yet instead of celebrating them, history has blamed them for bringing sin, deceit, and death into the world.

Easter Holiday Activities

Join us for Palm Sunday Celebration April 9 and our journey into Jerusalem, to the Hebrews, a place of peace, completeness and wholeness. For us the journey to fulfillment of the time when the spiritual "I am" takes control and lifts us all to the spiritual plane of mastery.

Good Friday Meditation April 14 6pm

A meditation with playing of the bowls will be conducted by the Reverends Jymme & Fran. Participants will have an opportunity to release (crucify) ideas that are no longer wanted and transform them into the realization of our Oneness with our Greater Self.

Easter Sunday Celebration April 16

We will be blessed by beautiful harp music performed by Debora LaMarchina, a professional harpist. A time of renewal and resurrection. Are we ready to rise above our littleness to embrace a larger and brighter reality that is awaiting us when we consciously, consistently, connect to the higher source, the "I AM?"
